A Good Case.

A man enters a lawyer's office. The lawyer asks:

"Well, sir, what can I do for you?"

"I want to sue General Bogleson."

"For how much?"

"Well, say about two thousand dollars."

"That's pretty good. State your case."

"I haven't got any case, particularly. He's got lots of money and I haven't. Thought I'd better go to law about it."

"How's your proof?"

"All right. We'll show the General what it is to beat a poor man out of his hard earnings."

"Don't know the General, do you?"

"No."

"Well, I'm the man, and the truth is, I owe Tom Kaine two thousand dollars and don't want to pay him, and he has sued me."

"Well, by George, sir," exclaimed the lawyer, "we'll show the impudent fellow what it is to be presumptuous."

To Stain Wood.

Apple, pear, and walnut wood, if fine grained, may be stained black by the following process. Boil in a glazed or enameled iron vessel with water four ounces of ground gall-nuts, one of log-wood chips, and half an ounce each of green-vitriol and crystals of verdigris. Filter while warm, and brush the wood over with this repeatedly. Dry and brush over with strong cold solution of acetate of iron, and dry. Repeat this several times, and finally dry in an oven at a moderate temperature, and oil or varnish.

—In nearly every railroad station in London is a small box on legs, painted crimson, which may be called an automatic post-office. It is divided into two compartments. In the top are apertures admitting a penny, one being for postal cards and the other for envelopes. You drop a penny through the slot and open a little drawer beneath, and presto, you find a postal card. Drop two pennies in the right-hand slot, open a corresponding drawer, and you find a stamped envelope, containing a dainty sheet of note paper. These little conveniences are the property of a company.

—Baldheaded men have the heaviest boards as a rule.

Fred Douglass and His Successor.

(Special Correspondence.)

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The resignation of Frederick Douglass from the office of recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia calls attention once more to this lion of the colored people, who, though in his 50th year, appears as strong and healthy as ever. He can well retire from labor, as he possesses a fortune of about $500,000, and he has a beautiful home surrounded by large grounds on the other side of the Potomac, overlooking Washington. It is the old Van Hook mansion, the home of a noted negro-hater, who, when he divided up his lands for sale, put into every deed a stipulation that the purchaser should in no case sell to a negro. Fred Douglass owns it today, and the whole of the estate, so divided, is dotted with the homes of colored men.

Douglass was, you know, a slave, and he fought as a boy with the dogs for the crumb that fell from his master's table. He has made his money chiefly by lecturing, and by a paper called The North Star, which he used to edit. He got $100 a night lecturing and he invested his money in government bonds and real estate. There is no pleasanter home in Washington than his, and his white wife is a beautiful and accomplished lady.

Mr. Douglass' successor is also a colored man, Mr. James C. Matthews, of Albany, N. Y. He is 28 years old and a very successful lawyer. In 1860 he won a free scholarship in an Albany academy over thirty white boys applicants and graduated from there with great honor, carrying away the first prize and a medal for the best English essay. He is like Douglass, a natural orator, and is regarded as one of the coming leaders of his race. The office to which he is appointed is said to be worth from $8,000 to $10,000 a year.

Dillon and Wisner, of Qu'Appelle and Qu'Appelle station, have been fined and sentenced to terms of imprisonment, by Judge Richardson, for having illicit stills in their possession.

Important to Settlers

Military Bounty Land Warrants.

INTENDING settlers in Manitoba and the North-West Territories can secure Free Grants of 320 acres on very favorable terms by purchasing Military Bounty Land Warrants.

Settlers desiring to secure a half section of land have hitherto been obliged to enter 160 acres as a homestead, and 160 acres as a pre-emption and have had to pay $500 for the latter before receiving their patent and in addition to pay various fees. The possession of a Military Bounty Land Warrant enables

Any person eligible to obtain entry for a homestead to enter at any Agency of Dominion Lands a Homestead of two adjoining quarter sections, comprising an area of 320 acres, of any even-numbered section of unoccupied and unclaimed Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories open for homestead entry free of charge and to obtain a Free Patent therefor when he shall have complied with the terms and conditions prescribed by the homestead provisions of the Dominion Lands Act of 1882.

Provided he shall have selected and entered the said land before the first day of August, 1886.

SCRIP.

Farmers desiring to pay for their Pre-emption or Wood Lots, Ranges and others owing the Government rent for Grazing and Hay Land would effect a large saving by making such payments in Government Scrip.

This agreeable yet potent preparation is especially adapted for the relief and cure of that class of disorders attendant upon a low or reduced state of the system, and usually accompanied by Pallor, Weakness and Palpitation of the Heart. Prompt results will follow its use in cases of Sudden Exhaustion arising from Loss of Blood, Acute or Chronic Diseases, and in the weakness that invariably accompanies the recovery from Wasting Fevers. No remedy will give more speedy relief in Dyspepsia or Indigestion, its action on the stomach being that of a gentle and harmless tonic, exciting the organs of digestion to action, and thus affording immediate and permanent relief. The carminative properties of the different aromatics which the Elixir contains render it useful in Flatulent Dyspepsia. It is a valuable remedy for Anemic Dyspepsia, which is apt to occur in persons of a gouty character.

For Improvished Blood, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, and in all cases where an effective and certain stimulant is required, the Elixir will be found invaluable.

Brandon Weekly Mail

THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1886.

From information leaking out before the railway committee at Ottawa it is evident, the prospects of the Northwest Central in its present hands, are not of the brightest. There is a huge "nigger" in a shrubbery between "uncle Dug" and James Beatty. Dug wants to make it appear there was a putup job between himself and Beatty by which they were to sell out to a company of contractors and monopolize profits in bonuses and land grants to the extent of over half a million of dollars, and he produces some letters which lend a coloring, at least, of truth to what he says. Dug then further charges, that after he helped Beatty up the ladder, Beatty drew up the flight of stairs and refused to allow him (Dug) to follow.

This is the old story of the fox and the goat in the pit. Other letters have been produced which would lend a shade to the conviction that Beatty intended to sell out to a company and monopolize spoils to the extent of the sum named and even more himself. What the exact intentions were it is hard to say, but it is quite evident there was more under cover than the public were aware of. It appears, however, that the timely interference of the government has nipped the innocent flower in the germ, and that the best laid plans of the rascals and men are somewhat deflected. Beatty still contends he has satisfactory arrangements made with the company to prosecute the work, and the government insists on being advised of them without delay. The certainty that the government will insist on Beatty's either showing himself in a shape to proceed with the work, at once or throw up the sponge, and let others take hold of it. The government is fully assured of the necessity for the road and it is willing to give the scheme every assistance in its power. As usual "Were Bob", "Manitoba's only representative," is trying to have the terminus changed from Brandon to Melburn, and the line run on the old grading, but it is not likely that his strength will amount to much. Here is an opportunity for the M. P. the Grits elected in Selkirk to do something for a portion of his constituency, but he is no east. He is looking after something for Hugh Sutherland. We sincerely trust the government will take this matter in hand. We are given to the opinion that if they would take these matters out of the hands of land sharks, and advise capitalists directly of what they were willing to do, and of what the municipalities interested were willing to contribute something certain could be arrived at without any shuffling, and with much less delay. A road bed diagonally through the municipality of Daly can be secured, on which there would be but few cuttings, and construction easily effected, and a paying traffic guaranteed from the start. We should much like to see this matter receive the consideration immediately its importance demands.

We have recently seen a copy of a private letter from Mr. Van Horne to a gentleman in Winnipeg, in which he stated it was the desire of his company to construct some 40 miles of the Brandon Southwestern railway this summer, if they could finance for it, and that they would know more about the matter by the 20th of April, which is now past. As the company have settled the loan matter with the government satisfactorily to both parties, the main obstacle in the way of financing is already disposed of. This then would not be an inopportune time for our local railway committee to do something. We are aware the company have said it was their desire to build the road, and without bonuses, but there may be some other way in which the municipalities interested could help on the scheme, if they would at once make proper inquiry. Valuable as would be the Northwest Central to Brandon, and important as its construction would be to many settlers in the country, the construction of the Southwestern is of still greater moment. Already Brandon is using considerable coal in a year, and if this road was built to the Souris coal fields, the city would consume a large quantity more. The lower rate at which the coal from that section could be delivered here, would doubtless bring down the western product, and the imported article from Pennsylvania to competitive figures, but this could only increase the trade of the C. P. R. east and west, rather than diminish it. Besides under the impetus given the growth of this city through the construction of the two projected lines, the fuel consumption of a year hence would be double what it was a year past, and traffic in other directions would rapidly become many times what it is. As it is there are thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of farm products southwesterly unmarketed every year for the want of an outlet, and the augmentation of these with a road would create a paying traffic from the start. We should like to hear of our railway committee's prompt communication with the C.P.R. and ascertain the facts at once. If it is a certainty that the road is to be proceeded with at once, it should be known, that business people and others might make their calculations for the future.

Qu'Appelle station is going to have a new Masonic Lodge with an organized fraternity.

Editor of The Brandon Mail.

DEAR SIR,—I am informed that a certain aspirant for parliamentary honors is already canvassing the coast, to make matters easy when a convention is held. Is this the usual way of doing business, or is it not?

Yours truly,
A.B.
Whitehead, April 24, '86.
[To our correspondent's query, we would say candidates ought invariably to be selected by the electors and not by themselves. As a rule the men who are best fitted for parliamentary duties are doing fairly well in their ordinary vocations, and are more inclined to remain there, than to disturb their business and work for the public. Experience proves that the man who is ever anxious to become a member, who has so much influence with the government and prominent parties in every corner of the country, as to be able to secure this thing for one corner of a constituency, that for another and never in a position to advocate a policy he can recommend to any and every locality of a constituency, has always his weather eye set on a scheme for himself. Those who saw Hugh Sutherland, when a candidate, building the Southwestern on every man's lot in Southern Manitoba, can best certify to this. It is no secret that the finances of this province are badly managed, that extravagance is rampant in civil government and legislation, that our schools and municipalities are improperly cared for, that our system of public improvements is defective, and that our municipal institutions are cumbersome and expensive. The candidates who can produce the best schemes for overcoming these defects, and with character and reasonable ability and less partisan feeling, are the most suitable for the requirements of the day. The aspirant who smiles all over, shakes hands with every one, and always enquires after the health of families he never heard of, has invariably some sinister object in view.—ED. MAIL.]

A correspondent in the Manitoban is taking up some extracts from the Free Press of years ago, laudatory of Hon. John Norquay, to prove Mr. Luxton and the Free Press are very inconsistent to give him opposition now. Let us look at the history of the twain. In the days of the Davis regime, Norquay and Luxton were both elected in opposition to that government, and Norquay on being elected became Minister of Public Works in the administration and Luxton gave it his unqualified support. Both again endorsed a ballot act, subsequently adopted, and both voted for its abolition, though after repentance Luxton again clamored for its re-establishment. In 1877-78 Luxton said the worst he could say against the railway policy of the McKenzie government, and Norquay approved of it, though he denounces it now; but both were so enamored of it towards the close of 1878, that Luxton appeared in Marquette as a supporter of the McKenzie government, and Norquay stood upon the platform endorsing his candidature against Joseph Ryan, of Portage la Prairie, the Conservative nominee, who was mainly instrumental in having the road diverted to the south of Lake Manitoba. Again, for patriotic principles, Luxton in 1882 felt foul of the Norquay government "for dereliction of duty," and cancelled a printing contract he had with the government, but managed, according to the Public Accounts of that year, to filch about $10,000 from the treasury for printing, without tender. Both gentlemen, it must be admitted, are rowing in a pretty crooked stream, but Norquay has a trifle the stronger ear.

The Winnipeg Sun accuses Mr. Watson, M. P., of partisanship, to the detriment of the province, in voting with Mr. Blake against the C.P.R. loan, to enable it to complete the main line, and the Free Press jumps at its throat, razor in hand, in true lunatic form. The Sun has spoken well, but it need not stop where it did. In June last the government brought down the land grant measure to assist branch lines in the country, and Mr. Blake moved in amendment, that companies be compelled to sell these lands at a maximum figure, when disposed of, and then only to bona fide settlers. Mr. Watson well knew that with a mortgage like this on lands, it would be next to impossible for companies to raise money on them in the money markets of the world, but he had not the courage to say so in the interests of the province, and against his political leader. The best thing Manitoba's only representative could do under the circumstances, to keep faith with his constituents and keep faith with his party, was to shirk the vote, and he shirked it.

Warden Holson has received orders from Ottawa for the release of Big Bear and four of his braves, all of whom took part in the Fort Pitt maraudings. The names of the three are Star Fish, Idol, Pahcotaw and Jacobus. The release will be made in a day or two.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using, sent by mail by addressing with stamp, name and address, to W. A. Noves, 110 Essex Street, Rochester, N. Y.

NORTHWEST ITEMS.

Qu'Appelle village appears to have a building boom. It has organized a joint stock company for the erection of tenement buildings. The village is also erecting a new school building, and a new Catholic church.

The Dominion will shortly appoint an Inspector of Indian agencies for the Northwest Territories and an officer of experience to examine the supplies furnished by contractors before they are served out to the Indians. This is doubtless the result of the report made by Dr. Girard that some of the flour supplied to the Indians by contractors was unfit for food.

The vice-president of the Canadian Pacific railroad has received a letter from Father LaCombe, O.M.I., in which that devoted missionary gives the result of his recent experiences among the Blackfoot and other tribes of the Northwest, and assurances of their peaceful attitude. He concludes: "Let the Indians be left alone with the Government's officers appointed to look after their welfare; let all the white settlers and new comers be fair and just towards the old owners of the land; let all those unscrupulous and ill-minded persons who seek to stir up more strife, in order to make money, be kept away; then will there be no more trouble to disturb and impede the ways of civilization; then will there be no barrier to hinder the influx of friendly immigration from all parts of the world."

On the 16th, Calgary citizens were astounded by the report that Mr. Fitzgerald Cochran, barrister, had died suddenly during the day. The circumstances attending the death are these: The deceased had been feeling ill, and about half-past three walked over to Dr. Henderson's office to seek medical attention. The doctor perceived at a glance that Mr. Cochran was in a very serious state, and he decided to call in a brother doctor for consultation. He made a couch for his patient on the office lounge, and after administering some remedies to prevent immediate collapse, hurried out to call in Dr. Lindsay. He cannot have been absent more than twenty minutes, but when he returned with Dr. Lindsay he found Mr. Cochran on the couch quite dead. Death was caused by apoplexy or congestion of the brain. A post-mortem examination will be held. The deceased was one of the oldest legal practitioners in the Northwest.

A most lamentable drowning accident occurred in the Bow River at Calgary on Sunday last. The victim was Mr. Frank Louis, who was a well and favorably known settler in this locality. In the forenoon the deceased crossed over from his homestead on the north side of the Bow, and remained in town till about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when he started to return home. On the way to the river he met Mr. J. C. Linton, and together they strolled toward the river. When they reached the bank the ice looked anything but safe, and Mr. Linton, before retracing his steps to town, stood on the margin to watch the hazardous trip of deceased across the river. When he had got about midway of the stream the ice gave way and deceased was let down into about seven feet of water, rushing along in a perfect torrent. He made frantic efforts to get a firm hold on the edge, but the rotten ice crumbled away immediately that he touched it.

The report of Mr. Pearce, Dominion Lands Commissioner, was presented in parliament before adjourning this morning. It frees the government from the charge of provoking the rebellion by delay in dealing with the half-breeds. He denies that any half-breeds in the Batouche settlement were unable to obtain patents when quilled. He says that no half-breed lost an inch of ground through the system of survey, and that 92 per cent. of 285 half-breeds had no rights as Northwest half-breeds, etc.

The Selkirk Record says: A young man lately from Ontario went out shooting on Monday last, and while crossing the river near mouth of the slough, his pocketbook, containing about $500, slipped out of his pocket and fell overboard. Every effort has been made to recover it by dragging the river and otherwise, but without success.

The Guelph Mercury says: Mr. A. H. Morrison, who has purchased over 700 high grade heifers for ranching purposes for the N. W. Territories, bought from Mr. F. W. Stone, nine thoroughbred shorthorn bulls. They are an extra fine lot, and will do credit to the county of Wellington.

Le Manitoba learns with regret that Rev. Father Pelletier, of St. Joseph, and Rev. Father Giron, of St. Anne, are severely indisposed; and states that Rev. Father Madore, O.M.I., of Fort Alexander, who has been ill at the archbishop's palace for a couple of months, is somewhat better. Rev. Father Allard is to visit the last mentioned mission this week. The old Indian chief, One Arrow, was visited on Monday on his death-bed, at the palace, by Lieutenant Governor Dewdney, accompanied by His Grace, who acted as interpreter. He thanked the Governor repeatedly, and asked him to protect his tribe from ill treatment.

CEMENT, N. J., April 23.—At the home of J. Monroe Smith, seven miles south of this place, to-day, a most dreadful tragedy occurred. Mr. Smith is 55 years old, and his wife 43, and the mother of six children, aged 19, 18, 13, 11, 5, and 4 years respectively. Some years ago the wife and mother was sent to an insane asylum, and was discharged a year later, presumably cured. Last fall she had severe pains in her head, and her husband sent her to her brother's house in Elizabeth, where she improved greatly and returned home a short time ago. This morning after breakfast she went to one of the outbuildings on the premises, and after swallowing a dose of "rough on rats," returned to the house with an axe concealed under her dress. Eva, her 4-year-old daughter, was still sleeping when the mother entered the bed chamber. Lifting the axe above the sleeping child the maniac mother brought it swiftly down, splitting the little one's head open, killing her instantly. Then she attacked Rufus, aged 13, dealing him several savage blows on the head with the pole of the axe. Bessie, the 11-year-old daughter, begged for mercy, but the terrible blood stained axe whirled in the air and went crash into the fragile little head. The 18-year-old daughter locked the heavy in an adjoining room, and ran screaming outside to appeal to her father of the awful work. After a terrible struggle the woman was secured. One of the children is dead and the others are likely to die before morning. Mrs. Smith is herself in a very precarious condition.

The International Editorial Association.

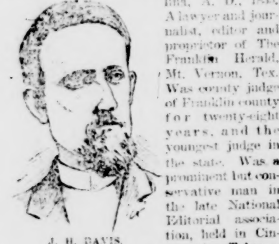

CINCINNATI, March 3.—The International Editorial Association, which recently held its annual convention here, promises to be a tremendous success for the cause of journalism. Its object is chiefly the building up of a professional journalistic literature through papers presented on topics relating to the different branches of the profession by practical newspaper men, and the establishment of a school or college of journalism and typography. Topics were presented by representatives of thirteen states, covering the whole field of newspaper work. Hereafter are presented portraits of the president-elect and other prominent members.

Charles H. Jones, the president of the association for next year, is editor of The Times-Union, at Jacksonville, Fla. He was born at Tallahassee, Fla., in 1848, entered the Confederate army at the age of 15 and served there in two years. Immediately after the war was over he took up his residence in New York city and entered upon a literary career. There he was editor of The Liberty Magazine for thirteen years and for four years was editor of Appleton's Journal. He is also the author of some six or eight books issued by New York and Boston publishers, and contributed to numerous leading magazines and papers. In 1891 he went to Jacksonville, Fla., and established The Daily Times, and a year later purchased the rival paper, The Union, and the consolidated paper is now one of the most widely known dailies in the south. Mr. Jones is state agent of the Associated Press and president of the Florida Press association. He was vice-president of the International association during the past year. Though often a power behind the scenes in state politics he is not a politician, will not accept office, preferring to wield his influence as a journalist and an individual. While rather small in stature, as a writer and journalist his weight is not less than 300 pounds.

Leon Jastrowski, the next president, was born in France, came to Louisiana at the age of 6 years. At 14 he began an apprenticeship in a printing office, ending with the commencement of the civil war, when he entered the Tenth Louisiana regiment of the Army of Northern Virginia, remaining with the rank of captain at its close. He then engaged in commercial pursuits until 1885, when he was elected mayor of Baton Rouge, and re-elected for two successive terms. He also served as a member of the constitutional convention of 1879. He founded The Capitalist that year, and in 1881, having become state printer, the paper was consolidated with the old Advocate, which was founded in 1832, and he was made editor of the consolidated paper. He was appointed a paymaster general of the state militia, and supervisor of the state universities in 1890. He has been grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Louisiana, and a long champion of the Democratic state committee, and has been president of the Louisiana Press association since 1892.

James J. H. Davis, president of the Texas Press association, was born in South Carolina, A. D. 1853. A lawyer and journalist, editor and proprietor of The Franklin Herald, Mr. Vernon, Tex. Was county judge of Franklin county for twenty-eight years, and the youngest judge in the state. Was a prominent but conservative man in the late National Editorial association, held in Cincinnati. Takes a prominent and active part in politics in his state. Judge Davis is a peculiar Texan, not having drunk a drop of liquor for twenty-eight years. He is familiarly known throughout Texas as "Methodist Jim," and this sobriquet was given him by the convention. It is not because of his religion, creed or convictions, but years ago some wag introduced him to the wife of Gov. Ireland, at a religious meeting, and as Mrs. Ireland is an ardent member of that church, she made much of him on that account. The name has stuck to him ever since. He is six feet three inches tall, and would command attention anywhere.

Herbert Seymour and Mr. Delavan. During my first administration, said the late Honorable Seymour, Mr. Delavan (who built the Delavan house in Albany, the great specialty of temperance in his day, came to me to express his dissatisfaction with the existing statutes which prohibited men from selling liquor under certain circumstances, making them amenable, and to urge more positive legislation. I said to him: "Now, suppose you could get a perfectly effective temperance law that could be executed, and that by way of supplementing or adding to its efficiency you could put the man who had been intemperate under circumstances where he would labor industriously and regularly, engage in no social conversation, go to church twice on Sunday, and, indeed, be withdrawn from other temptations. Would you like such an arrangement?" "Yes," said he, "that is a more perfect system of law than I supposed could be made." I then replied: "I will show you just such a system in operation. If you will go down to Sing Sing prison, I will show you hundreds of men living under that exact system. They cannot drink, cannot indulge in other vices, in evil conversation or communication, are delighted to have the chaplain talk with them, regular in habits, go to church twice on Sunday, but the whole system is one of coercion. Now, if your house was robbed, and you knew that a man was in the neighborhood who had been living under your ideal system, he would be the first man whom you would arrest."

TOWN TOPICS

Mr. W. L. Parrish is happy.—It's a daughter.

Last Sunday was the first anniversary of the battle of Fish Creek.

Della has gone to California for her summer vacation.

Mr. Crawford, our fire engineer, is the first man who used coal in a railway locomotive in America. He used it on the Grand Trunk 27 years ago.

Legs are coming down the Assiniboine daily, and the sawmill will be running in a day or two.

We had about four inches of the beautiful Tuesday, but it is now in liquid form, and vegetation is all the better for it.

Mr. James, who has been in the post-office, Brandon for some time past, has secured an appointment in the Mail Service on the C.P.R. His field will be between Winnipeg and the Portage.

Mr. Fells, son of Fiam Creek, was a pleasant caller at the Mail office last week, on his way home from Ontario. He was surprised at seeing the advanced state of the spring's growth in this country.

Mr. McDonald brother of M. McDonald, registrar, is opening a law office in Deslites' new building near the Merchants Bank. If he has any reasonable share of his father's ability, and we are informed he has, he ought to make his mark in this part of the country.

The following officers have been elected for St. Matthews church: Record's warden, J. H. Hanson; people's warden, J. W. Peters; secretary, Judge Walker, Mr. Hanbury, J. K. Stanley, John Colwell, Joan Dickinson, G. H. Leck's auditor—A. Jukes and K. F. McKim.

Our local sportsmen are complaining of the damage done them from a piscatorial point of view by the damners to the Assiniboine at points up the stream. As usual, go up to spawn and finding the dam in the way on their return they remain up, and leave the lower river without fish.

It appears the attorney general of the Grit party has given the appointment of census enumerator under the Manitoba election Act to Mr. Alderman Cameron. This is proved by the fact his organ has gazetted the appointment, and no one else, not even Mr. Cameron knows anything about it.

A meeting of Cricketers was held in Russell Cooper's office on Thursday evening last, for the purpose of organization and election of officers for the present season. His Honor Judge Walker was elected patron; F. G. A. Henderson, president; Jas. A. Smart, vice-president; A. E. Philip, secretary.

Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings are practice nights.

The demand for teachers has quite outstripped the supply, and an examination is to be held by the local Inspector and the Principal of the school, to determine who shall receive interim certificates till the regular examination, at midsummer—This examination begins at 9 a. m., on Monday in the public school building. All who wish such certificates are requested to present themselves at that time.

The upset of "Dandy" French's escapade is that she has been sent up for trial by Justice Todd. Her solicitor has made an effort to secure bail, but, so far, he has been unsuccessful. It is much to be regretted that bail is allowed in such cases as every one knows her time at liberty is no more valuable to her than it is in the cells, and public safety is better off when she is in the jug. As "Dandy" expressed regret that her aim at Bond was not more successful, there is no certainty she would not make a second attempt if at her liberty.

We had the commencement of two large fires the past few days, but fortunately neither of them was allowed to make headway. One was the ignition of some tar the workmen were preparing at the rear of the registry office, and the other a blaze in Thomas' foundry originating in some embers thrown from the forge. The engine was called out in both instances, but workmen with pails of water did the business before it was employed.

Provincial policeman Foster soon quelled the constable's insurrection at Minnedosa, after his arrival there. The ex-chief surrendered at once, when Foster told him that was his best course, and he was fined. Souster the other recalcitrant was fined and sentenced to two months imprisonment. Foster brought him over to put in the latter on "the bill account."

The usual quarterly meeting of the Council of the Brandon Board of Trade will be held on Thursday evening next at Fraser Bros. office, Rosser ave. The regular meeting of the Board of Trade will be held on Friday evening next in the council chamber, city hall. Highway and other important matters will be discussed, and all members are urged to be present.

The Mosaic Courier says that Mr. J. R. Neff, whose farm is situated about a mile from that town, has sown this season upwards of 400 acres of wheat (Red Fife) and the crop is already making rapid progress, being about two inches above ground. Mr. Neff also intends sowing 200 acres of barley this season of the six-rowed kind. This will make 600 acres of crop all in one field, a sight well worth seeing, and one that would do the heart of any old country farmer good to look on. Mr. Neff says this spring is the finest he has experienced since he was settled in the country.

Messrs. G. G. Hilliard, of Alexander, Wm. Creighton, of Daly, and F. Clegg, of Elton, were in the city during the week, and all speak in high terms of the season's prospects for crops. Mr. Creighton says he has 100 acres of wheat in and nearly all up. Mr. Clegg says he has proved that clover can be successfully grown in the country, as he now has a field that has stood the second winter, and is now three inches high. He is satisfied neither timothy nor clover can be grown after fresh breaking, but both will do well after the ground has been cropped for some years.

J. J. DUNLOP.

A noticeable feature in the Indian supply contract, says the Battleford Herald, is that of the four adjoining agencies of Peace Hills, Edmonton, Victoria and Union Lake or Pitt, Peace Hills, gets far and away the largest amount, Edmonton next, Victoria next, and Union Lake, with the largest number of Indians, the smallest. The quantity has not been graded according to loyalty or disloyalty, for although the disloyal Union Lakers get little, the loyal Victoria Indians get but little more, and far less than the at least questionably loyal ones of Peace Hills.

The first session of the Northwest Board of Education resulted in the appointment of six Protestant and five Roman Catholic school inspectors. The total salaries of the former, graded according to the number of schools each one has to inspect, is $1,495, and of the latter $150. Travelling expenses are allowed in addition. Of Protestant inspectors Rev. A. B. Baird, Edmonton gets $75; Rev. J. McLean, McLeod and Calgary, $100; P. G. Laune, Battleford, $25. Roman Catholics, Rev. Pere Lestance, Edmonton, $150; W. V. Correll, Calgary and McLeod, $25; E. Richard, Battleford, $50. Revs. F. W. Peily and Hugonard, of Ft. Qu'Appelle, were appointed a board of examiners of teachers at a salary of $100 each. James Brown, of the Lieutenant Governor's office, was appointed secretary of the board of education at a salary of $60 a month, and was instructed to call for tenders for the printing of the blanks required by the ordinance. Gage's series of school books was adopted for the Protestant schools, and that in use in the Roman Catholic schools of Manitoba was adopted for the Roman Catholic schools.

To Whom It May Concern. Geo. W. Platt, of Picton, says he can confidently recommend Burdock Blood Bitters to any who suffer from loss of appetite, constipation and general debility, that remedy having cured him, after severe illness from the same complaints.

—The hen is prominent at the State fair-grounds this year by virtue not only of her good lungs, but also by virtue of what she does for her State. There are more than ten million hens in Maine, and the egg crop of this State is as valuable as the apple crop. —Lewistown (Me.) Journal.

The Lost Restored. Ira McNeill of Poplar Hill, Ont., states that his brother aged 12, was afflicted with a terrible cold, from the effects of which he lost his voice. Hageyard's Pectoral Balsam cured the cold and restored his voice in the most perfect manner. He says it cannot be exceeded as a remedy for coughs and colds.
